

CELEBRATE Refugee Week 2017 by singing.....

One World To Share by Caroline Hoile

'One World To Share' is our song written for Primary School children to celebrate Refugee Week.
It's great for schools and children's choirs.
Available as a download from www.grumpysheep.com

It's also good for all those adults who are young at heart and enjoy singing:
- in choirs, churches, or for busking! It will be perfect to sing for the Great Get Together, too!

'One World To Share' is one song from our brand NEW musical for primary schools to raise awareness about refugees.
It's called 'As Free As A Bird' and is available NOW!

More info at www.grumpysheep.com/shop/product/51/as-free-as-a-bird

An Invitation To Perform 'As Free As A Bird' in the Platforma Festival!

Would your primary school like to take part in our musical project and perform 'As Free As A Bird' with schools
all over the country
during the Platforma Festival in October 2017?

To Take Part simply.....

- Let us know you'd like to be involved. We'll send you a welcome pack.
- Choose convenient performance date(s) during the Platforma Festival, 19-31 October (before or after is fine too if half term gets in the way!)
- Spread the word and invite other schools to perform too!