

If you contact them through that route, they would also be willing to visit you and discuss this with a group of your members. You mention that you have written separately to Rachel Gillott; I hope you will accept this as a single response to your enquiries.

I hope you will be reassured that Devon is playing a full part in meeting the needs of these children within the direction set by the Government.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "John Hart" followed by a stylized flourish. A long horizontal line is drawn below the signature.

John Hart

Enc.